I created a musical theme and an unused variation of it. The software used was FL Studio. I experimented with different VSTs to create a variant of one song to be distinct, but similar. This is to create a sense of continuity when the Player switches between the Main Menu and Game scenes.